Medellín and El Oriente

El Poblado is the city base. El Retiro, Llanogrande and La Ceja lie in El Oriente, the highlands east of Medellín.

José María Córdova International Airport (MDE) is in Rionegro, on the El Oriente side.

The U.S. was the leading visitor source market in Medellín's 2025 tourism report: 310,517 visitors.

Tourism figures describe visits, not permanent residents.

“By Lola & Ber” brings the brand’s design and hospitality to independently named properties, without an explicit sexual theme.

Lola & Ber Hospitality is the property division. Members’ collective equity offers exposure to the brand’s development; it has no modeled value or guaranteed return.
